

At the “Transgender Prom” for kids in Boston City Hall

Part of state-supported “Youth Pride Day”

Yes, this is a man in women's clothes with his arm around a teenager.

This is one of the featured speakers at the rally, a boy wearing a bra, necklace, lipstick, women's earrings (and a growth of beard) who calls himself "Foxy Cleo".

This man, who towered over the kids, even used a cigarette holder for effect.

How does a man like this even get in? Obviously the people running the event had no problem with him being there.
