PRESS RELEASE

NEW GROUP “OUTS” VIRGINIA TRANSGENDER HEALTH COMMISSIONER

Yorktown, Virginia – Virginia Mass Resistance, a Judeo-Christian group, made its first public appearance today with the launch of an awareness campaign about the transgender Health Commissioner of Virginia. Information packets went out by mail to all members of the Virginia General Assembly, clergy members of Virginia as well as civic leaders. The packets included various public information items clearly showing the transformation from manhood to perceived womanhood.

In January of this year, Governor McAuliff appointed Marissa Levine, the former Mark Levine, as interim Health Commissioner. At some point the “acting commissioner” became the official face for Virginia health issues.

“Whether or not the appointment of Levine had a hidden political agenda or not remains to be seen”, commented Linda Wall, the CEO of Virginia Mass Resistance. Wall went on to add, “In light of the eradication of 1.3 million votes defining marriage as one man and one woman and Levine side-stepping the General Assembly’s law regarding safety regulations for abortion clinics, the question arises, how much will the citizens of Virginia tolerate? ”

Virginia Mass Resistance is a Judeo-Christian group of Virginians whose objective is to resist all forces opposing the Judeo-Christian foundation of the Commonwealth. Contents of the mailer may be viewed at virginiamassresistance.com.
