

Massachusetts high school hands out pro-homosexual, anti-religious propaganda to students – disguised as a religious message! So much for the "separation of church and state"! This happened at the same school where the "Little Black Book" -- a pornographic homosexual guide -- was distributed in 2005.

During "Allies Week" at Brookline High School in October 2006, students were told in homeroom that "No one is 100% normal. Everyone is some percent gay." And these pamphlets were handed out, published by a "church" founded by homosexual activists. Is this the future? Is this what you pay your taxes for?

what the bible does
does not say

God didn't say that!

The Bible never said that the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed because of any sexual acts of their inhabitants.
The truth is: The Bible says the two cities were destroyed because of their arrogance, refusing to show hospitality to weary, traveling strangers, and treating them with violence.

The Bible never said that it's a sin for two people of the same sex to love each other.
The truth is: The Bible includes at least one story of a same-sex couple in a faithful, loving relationship.

The Bible never said that Jesus Christ condemned homosexuality.
The truth is: Jesus acknowledged three types of "eunuchs," among them those "born eunuchs." Was he referring to gay men, or queer folk generally, as "eunuchs"?

The Bible never said that gay men and lesbians have to be "healed of homosexuality" in order to be good people.
The truth is: The Christian tradition (like the Jewish tradition) teaches that the two greatest commandments are: love God, and love your neighbor as yourself (respect yourself, and treat other people the way you would like to be treated). Every child of God has the right to dignity and love!
