On the above date and time, I along with Sgt. THIBEAULT were working a paid detail at the St. Rocco's Festival on the grounds of St. Mary's. I was approached by Peter Brunelli, the Chairman of the Festival, who stated that he had received several complaints of a white male wearing a red and grey shirt, brown hair and a beard that was handing out literature to people on the grounds and that he wanted the party removed from the property. Mr. Brunelli stated that no one was suppose to be handing anything out. Mr. Brunelli showed me a pamphlet about abortion. I searched the grounds and found the subject matching that description.

I approached the suspect and asked him for a ID, I asked him what he was doing here, he replied that he was handing out information. I then asked him again for some form of identification, he refused to tell me his name, I again asked to see some form of identification, he refused, stating he did not have to and he did not have one. I informed the subject that this was private property and that I needed to know who I was dealing with. The subject later identified as a Peter J. Dattilio of [REDACTED], Newton (DOB 10-26-70), started to leave, I told him to stop and went to block him with my arm extended, he pushed past me, I informed him that he needed to produce some identification as I was conducting a investigation. People started to gather around myself and I was joined by Sgt. THIBEAULT. Myself and Sgt. THIBEAULT asked several more times for some identification, the subject again refused, stating that we had no right to detain him (as I talking to him, the subject was staring at me, like he was staring right through me). I then informed him that if he did not produce a ID, that he was going to be placed under arrest for Disturbing the Peace, because he was creating a scene. The subject was then informed that he was being placed under arrest for Disturbing the Peace. While I was trying to place the handcuffs on him, he pulled away and had to be physically restrained and then handcuffed by myself and Sgt. THIBEAULT. The subject was then hand cuffed (DL) and escorted to the exit by Queen St. and I called for a marked cruiser.

Once Ptl. GUARINO & ZIMMERMAN arrived, we attempted to place the subject in Ptl. GUARINO's cruiser, he resisted again and had to be physically put into the cruiser. Ptl. GUARINO then transported the subject to the station to be booked. Once the station, the subject was identified as a Peter J. Dattillo of [REDACTED], Newton, Mr. Dattillo was booked by Sgt. MANOCCHIO, the shift commander and advised of his rights. He was then placed in a cell to await bail.. Mr. Dattillo was charged with Disturbing the Peace and Resisting Arrest.
