

Talking points: Vote NO on H4664:

This will hurt children who have been raped or molested and desperately need counseling. They could be suicidal – so this bill could help kill them.

This bill would make it illegal to counsel children who have sexual orientation issues.

Many people's lives have been saved by this therapy. (See sheet)

This bill is clearly unconstitutional, given the June 26 US Supreme Court ruling that the government cannot regulate “professional speech”.

This is being pushed by radical special interest groups that don't care about our children. They are telling legislators blatant lies and misinformation to pass this. (See sheet)

This bill has been rejected by nearly 20 states across the country.
