Thanks for the message!

We will honor your request. We will try and arrange another team for Galileo to check out books this week.

Please know that our guests are only reading to our students. All of our guests have been screened through Austin Partners in Education. Our goal is to promote acceptance, especially during Pride Week.

Again, we will honor your request. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions/concerns.

Subject: LGBT library time

Hi Mr. Garner,

[REDACTED] and I do not wish for our son, [REDACTED], to participate in the LGBT library week. We feel that it's inappropriate for any adult, regardless of their preference, to discuss his or her sexuality with minors, especially with small children.

Thanks,
